*International Prize
'Best Enterprises'*

for professional achievements in commercial activities

John Netting,
EBA Director General,
Oxford, UK

Speech is silver, but silence is golden

This proverb is surely right in many situations. But to share our experiences, we need a continuous dialogue between people, organizations and industries. EBA cares about that dialogue and has therefore organized different business events in the areas of education and investment.

We organize the International Socrates Award Ceremony to recognize the best professionals and give them international recognition for their success. We also facilitate continuous dialogue by networking them with other successful people. Our dedicated, accessible and highly qualified staff are an essential part of EBA experience and will help you achieve your networking goals in variety of ways.

About EBA

Our mission is to enforce and support the exchange of experience and the development of the economy, education and culture as well as socio areas between European countries.

Therefore, EBA's main activities are to arrange national and international business forums, congresses and exhibitions. European and world personalities are awarded for their personal contributions or professional achievements.

Outlining the best experience

One of the most important objectives of EBA is continuously enhance and promote the reputation of commercial, educational, cultural leaders who, through their hard work and exceptional business sense, support the exchange of ideas and experiences in culture, education, economy and finance as well as socio areas.

The purpose of Socrates Awards is ongoing promotion of the world elite, who through their hard work and exceptional business sense, support an exchange of ideas and experiences amongst the international community in the areas such as economics, politics, education and culture.

Through careful selection process by the International Socrates Committee, which picks the most deserving award recipients, Socrates award ceremony honours their professional achievements and gives the international recognition for their success.

Socrates Award Ceremony takes place twice a year in Oxford, UK.

Dear Prof. Miroslav Vesković,

Allow us to convey our appreciation to you personally for consistent activity directed to the national science and education system development.

Permit us invite you as participant to the Oxford Summit of Leaders 'Science and Education', which will be organized on 17-18 December 2013 (Oxford Town Hall, UK). The programme is attached.

According to the event organizer's (Europe Business Assembly, E.B.A., Oxford, UK) opinion your speech during the subject section with analysis of current trends of the national programs of education development will promote educational services of the educational centre in the developing markets of the relevant summit participants from African Union, Near East, Arab League, ASEAN, BRICS, and other geopolitical entities.

With the aim to support and inspire new knowledge and its authors and to promote the best educational institutions, CRE initiates the international competition «Excellence and innovation in education» for the following categories: Best lecturer; Best scientist; Best student; Best innovative initiative; Best learning manual; Best university library; Best University website; Best University motto; Best campus and facilities.

We invite you and your educational establishment to take part in any of the above mentioned categories. It will facilitate your institution's promotion and single it out among other educational institutions.

Additionally the keynote outcome of this event will be the presentation of the Socrates Almanac 'Oxford Look 2013'. It is an annual publication of the most interesting scientific researches, advanced training techniques, promising innovative solutions and schemes of their financing. The almanac also contains the information concerning the global university rankings, the list of innovative projects and programmes in education, scientific and popular articles, information and biographic documents, journalistic essays about renowned scientists.

We recommend you to consider the possibility to put your scientific publication (article, information on educational establishment) in Socrates Almanac 'Oxford Look 2013'.

Please inform the executive coordinator on your decision as a preliminary registration is required.

Welcome to Oxford Club of Rectors (Club of the Rectors of Europe, CRE).

The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE) is a non-governmental public organization, which was established in Oxford, UK, in 2006. Our primary objective is to coordinate academic cooperation between higher education establishments and other educational market observers. The CRE currently consists of over a hundred members from 30 countries.

Membership of the CLUB OF THE RECTORS OF EUROPE (www.ebaoxford.co.uk) provides the following benefits:

- A Personal Diploma and a breast plate for the Club member.
- The use of the Oxford Rector's Lounge service provided at a discounted rate. This comprises the use of the Rector's personal office in Oxford, office apartments, a legal address and a personal assistant during your staying in Oxford. This service will be available from 1 June 2014.
- The opportunity to take part in the annual scientific 'Euro Education' conference at the Oxford Summit of Leaders, with the right to deliver a speech and make a presentation. You may also run your own conferences at the premises of your institution under the auspices of the CRE.
- The opportunity to deliver a public lecture to the students of Oxford University.
- The publication of scientific articles or information in the *Socrates Almanac Science and Education: Oxford Look (published under the auspices of CRE Oxford, UK.) It is an annual publication containing the most interesting scientific researches, advanced training techniques, and promising innovative solutions and financing schemes. The almanac also contains global university rankings, a list of innovative projects and programmes in education, current scientific and popular articles, biographical and journalistic essays about renowned scientists.

The Socrates Almanac is presented and distributed within the framework of the conferences held in Oxford, London, Valletta, Vienna, Moscow, Kiev, and Montreux, among other cities. This publication is also presented to the library collections of parliaments and ministries, major universities, embassies, and trade missions of Europe Business Assembly (EBA) participating countries.

- The possibility of taking part in the international scientific exchange and cooperation programmes of the CRE.
- A quota for internship training, including participation in the Oxford Education Centre training workshops, a scheme originated by the Club members and in accordance with the model of Oxford Business College.
- Participation in the online CRE Leaders Network, which aims at providing members of the Club and the wider European community with information on:
 - your university/company with an active link to your personal website;
 - trainings, workshops, exhibitions and conferences held by the members of the Club;

- opportunities for students to obtain their postgraduate education with the university members of the Club;
 - opportunities for lecturers to publish scientific works and guidelines in the scientific and methodical collections published by other members of the Club;
 - internship opportunities for international students;
 - access to summer university courses organized by members of the CRE, European universities and scientific associations;
 - access to other CRE university lecturers, who could be invited to deliver lectures in your own university.
- Assistance for CRE university members in improving the language skills of their students.
 - Participation in the annual international competition 'Excellence and Innovation in Education' for the following categories:
 1. Education : Excellence and innovation
 2. Best lecturer
 3. Best scientist
 4. Best student
 5. Best innovative project
 6. Best educational textbook
 7. Best university library
 8. Best academic website
 9. Best university motto
 10. Best campus
 - The possibility for your university to be included in the CRE 'Best Regional University' rankings, where the results are posted on the official website of the CRE and in the annual edition of the Socrates Almanac.
To conduct the ranking, expert EBA analysts consider the following criteria:
 - affordability of education (tuition fees, conditions for applying);
 - qualifications of staff;
 - university accreditation and certification;
 - testimonials from alumni and students;
 - quality of equipment;
 - involvement in international educational and exchange projects;
 - diversity of teaching methods and programmes;
 - regular implementation of new courses and subjects;
 - accessibility of education for international students;
 - quality of education; and
 - opportunities for international cooperation.
 - The right to nominate candidates for honorary titles and awards of the CRE: 'The Name in Science' Award and the 'Best University' Award, which bestows the Rector with the title 'Manager of the Year' (the nomination for top manager in the 'Educational sphere').
 - The opportunity to post some information about your educational institution on the CRE webpage (<http://www.summitofleaders.co.uk>) with a link to your educational institution's official website.

You can become a member of the CRE by submitting the application, filling in the form and paying the membership fee: a one-off payment of £3,150.

Since 2008 the CRE has held a total of 55 meetings in Oxford (UK), Vienna (Austria), Yalta (the Crimea, Ukraine), Valletta (Malta), Barcelona (Spain), Turin (Italy), Amman (Jordan), Damascus (Syria), London (UK), Geneva (Switzerland), Dublin (Ireland), Moscow (Russia), and Kiev (Ukraine). In addition, eight 'EuroEducation' conferences were conducted under the aegis of Varna Free University 'Chernorizets Hrabar', Varna, Republic of Bulgaria, the International Slavonic University, and the Spanish education group 'Spain Inn Group'.

Welcome to Oxford Club of Rectors..pdf

Welcome to the Oxford Rectors' Club (The Club of Rectors of Europe CRE).

The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE) is a non-governmental public organization, which was established in Oxford, UK, in 2006. Our primary objective is to coordinate academic cooperation between higher education establishments and other educational market observers. The CRE currently consists of over a hundred members from 30 countries.

Membership of the CLUB OF RECTORS OF EUROPE (www.ebaoxford.co.uk) provides the following benefits:

- A Personal Diploma and a breast plate for the Club member.
- The use of the Oxford Rector's Lounge service provided at a discounted rate. This comprises the use of the Rector's personal office in Oxford, office apartments, a legal address and a personal assistant during your staying in Oxford. This service will be available from 1 June 2014.
- The opportunity to take part in the annual scientific 'Euro Education' conference at the Oxford Summit of Leaders, with the right to deliver a speech and make a presentation. You may also run your own conferences at the premises of your institution under the auspices of the CRE.
- The opportunity to deliver a public lecture to the students of Oxford University.
- The publication of scientific articles or information in the *Socrates Almanac Science and Education: Oxford Look (published under the auspices of CRE Oxford, UK.) It is an annual publication containing the most interesting scientific researches, advanced training techniques, and promising innovative solutions and financing schemes. The almanac also contains global university rankings, a list of innovative projects and programmes in education, current scientific and popular articles, biographical and journalistic essays about renowned scientists.

The Socrates Almanac is presented and distributed within the framework of the conferences held in Oxford, London, Valletta, Vienna, Moscow, Kiev, and Montreux, among other cities. This publication is also presented to the library collections of parliaments and ministries, major universities, embassies, and trade missions of Europe Business Assembly (EBA) participating countries.

- The possibility of taking part in the international scientific exchange and cooperation programmes of the CRE.
- A quota for internship training, including participation in the Oxford Education Centre training workshops, a scheme originated by the Club members and in accordance with the model of Oxford Business College.
- Participation in the online CRE Leaders Network, which aims at providing members of the Club and the wider European community with information on:
 - your university/company with an active link to your personal website;
 - trainings, workshops, exhibitions and conferences held by the members of the Club;
 - opportunities for students to obtain their postgraduate education with the university members of the Club;

- opportunities for lecturers to publish scientific works and guidelines in the scientific and methodical collections published by other members of the Club;
- internship opportunities for international students;
- access to summer university courses organized by members of the CRE, European universities and scientific associations;
- access to other CRE university lecturers, who could be invited to deliver lectures in your own university.
- Assistance for CRE university members in improving the language skills of their students.
- Participation in the annual international competition 'Excellence and Innovation in Education' for the following categories:
 1. Education : Excellence and innovation
 2. Best lecturer
 3. Best scientist
 4. Best student
 5. Best innovative project
 6. Best educational textbook
 7. Best university library
 8. Best academic website
 9. Best university motto
 10. Best campus
- The possibility for your university to be included in the CRE 'Best Regional University' rankings, where the results are posted on the official website of the CRE and in the annual edition of the Socrates Almanac. To conduct the ranking, expert EBA analysts consider the following criteria:
 - affordability of education (tuition fees, conditions for applying);
 - qualifications of staff;
 - university accreditation and certification;
 - testimonials from alumni and students;
 - quality of equipment;
 - involvement in international educational and exchange projects;
 - diversity of teaching methods and programmes;
 - regular implementation of new courses and subjects;
 - accessibility of education for international students;
 - quality of education; and
 - opportunities for international cooperation.
- The right to nominate candidates for honorary titles and awards of the CRE: 'The Name in Science' Award and the 'Best University' Award, which bestows the Rector with the title 'Manager of the Year' (the nomination for top manager in the 'Educational sphere').
- The opportunity to post some information about your educational institution on the CRE webpage (<http://www.summitofleaders.co.uk>) with a link to your educational institution's official website.

Kindly submit the application, fill in the form and cover the membership fee -a one-off payment of £2,700 and £1,000 for the European countries.

Since 2008 the CRE has held a total of 55 meetings in Oxford (UK), Vienna (Austria), Valletta (Malta), Barcelona (Spain), Turin (Italy), Amman (Jordan), Damascus (Syria), London (UK), Geneva (Switzerland), Dublin (Ireland). In addition, eight 'EuroEducation' conferences were conducted under the aegis of Varna Free University 'Chernorizets Hrabar', Varna, Republic of Bulgaria, the International Slavonic University, and the Spanish education group 'Spain Inn Group'.

Let us invite you to New Year's University Rector's Ball
Wednesday, 18 December, 20:00–23.00
Ceremonial City Hall, Oxford (UK)

We are delighted to inform you of one of the brightest European events - the Christmas Rector's Ball, held in

The Ball brings together rectors, innovation centres leaders, outstanding scientists and representatives of the scientific and cultural communities from more than thirty countries of Europe, Asia, Africa and the Americas.

The key mission of the ball is the recognition of scientific people, and anyone involved in the intellectual development of society, who have contributed to the introduction of spirituality as well as charity into the modern world.

The rectors of the best universities in the world lead the ball. They proceed in solemn procession to the hall in academic robes and full dress, cheered by the audience.

The event gets everyone into the mood of the past - the era of chivalry and the European cultural explosion.

Beautiful music, a classical dance program with the best European dancing waltz masters, gourmet cuisine, contests and raffles, gifts to the guests of the ball and concert performances all contribute to the atmosphere of the event.

The Ball organisers do their best to ensure that every participant enjoys the event to the fullest of their ability and has the happiest possible memories.

More detailed information on <http://www.summitofleaders.co.uk/en/activities#Ball>

Ticket/table reservation - £250 per person. Free for participants of the Oxford Summit of Leaders: Science and Education. The Ball participants can also attend the plenary and some of the work Summit session.

If you have some questions concerning the participation, do not hesitate to contact me.

PREDMET: Odgovor na zahtjev

Poštovani,

S obzirom na vaš zahtjev za pristup informacijama od javnog značaja od 15. 01. 2014. g. dajemo Vam sljedeći odgovor:

Prema Zakonu o slobodnom pristupu informacija od javnog značaja ("Sl. glasnik RS", br. 120/2004, 54/2007, 104/2009 i 36/2010), član 3. u kojem se kaže:

„Organ javne vlasti (u daljem tekstu: organ vlasti) u smislu ovog zakona jeste:

- 1) državni organ, organ teritorijalne autonomije, organ lokalne samouprave, kao i organizacija kojoj je povereno vršenje javnih ovlašćenja (u daljem tekstu: državni organ);
- 2) pravno lice koje osniva ili finansira u celini, odnosno u pretežnom delu državni organ”,

Univerzitet u Novom Pazaru nije u obavezi da Vam dostavi tražene informacije.

Naime, Univerzitet u Novom Pazaru nije organ javne vlasti u smislu gore pomenutog Zakona.

U članu 15. Zakona o slobodnom pristupu informacijama od javnog značaja, na koji se pozivate u zahtjevu, tražilac podnosi pismeni zahtev organu vlasti za ostvarivanje prava na pristup informacijama od javnog značaja, a s obzirom da mi u smislu ovog zakona nismo organ vlasti nemamo ni zakonsku obavezu da Vam dostavimo tražene informacije i dokumenta.

U vezi sa Vašim traženjem, a u skladu sa načelom transparentnosti kojim se kao institucija rukovodimo, kao i u cilju podržavanja i razvoja istraživačkog novinarstva u Srbiji, obavještavamo Vas da nas je Evropska poslovna skupština (EBA) kontaktirala putem elektronske pošte prvi put 8. avgusta 2012. godine sa mail adrese inter@ebaoxford.co.uk u kojem su pozvali rektora Univerziteta da prisustvuje događaju "Oxford Summit of Leaders" i da mu bude uručena nagrada za doprinos u nauci na svečanoj dodjeli nagrada koje su trebale biti održane u oktobru 2012. godine u Velikoj Britaniji.

Univerzitet u Novom Pazaru, kao ozbiljna visokoškolska institucija, stupila je u kontakt sa gore pomenutom organizacijom telefonskim putem i nakon dobijanja informacija o samoj organizaciji i uslovima za dobijanje nagrade, odbila saradnju.

Nakon toga, gore pomenuta organizacija nas je kontaktirala putem elektronske pošte u više navrata, poslednji put 4. septembra 2013. godine, na koju nismo odgovarali.

Prof. Milovan Stanišić, Rector
Singidunum University

Dear Prof. Stanišić,

From the 11th till 15th of July 2012 a large European scientific conference 'Euroscience Open Forum' (ESOF-2012) will be held in Dublin (Ireland) that is hosted every two years in one of leading European cities. The forum is an interdisciplinary all-European platform where up-to-date achievements in the field of science and technology are being demonstrated, a dialogue on the role of science and technologies in the state policy and the life of society is being carried on.

At the same time with the main programme of the forum, there will be the celebration of the laureates of an honourable title 'The Name in Science' — for the best scientific developments and researches. The celebration will be held on the 12th of July 2012 at the Dublin Town Hall. The laureate becomes a holder of an honourable title 'The Name in Science' with handing a breast sign; his/her name is inscribed to the register of outstanding scientists according to the version of Europe Business Assembly (E.B.A., Oxford, UK).

For more than ten years specialists of the Assembly have been conducting marketing researches in the field of fundamental sciences and education to attract innovative foundations and companies for the national scientific developments, to enhance them at home and foreign markets. We took upon ourselves the responsibility to address to you, a well-known scientist, with the offer to nominate your candidature for the laureate of honourable title in the field of scientific researches 'The Name in Science'. Participation in this nomination will allow you to position your works in the world academia and facilitate further strengthening of your personal positive image.

The basic criteria of the laureates' selection are the actuality of the scientific developments, their economic efficiency, loyalty to the integration transfer, participation in the international symposia and conferences. It also takes into consideration the unique achievements in the professional work, the personal contribution of the nominee to the development of the national science, enlightening activities and support of the social projects, the press evaluation, frequency of citation and absence of negative comments in mass media.

In case of impossibility of your personal participation, there is an option of a special courier delivery of the set of the nomination attributes to the indicated address or presenting the award in the framework of any next events, held under the auspices of E.B.A. within 2012.

Please inform the project's executive coordinator on your decision as a preliminary registration is required.

Professor Milovan Stanišić, Rector
Singidunum University

Dear Professor Stanišić,

Twice a year, the Oxford Summit of Leaders brings together leading business, political, economic, scientific and academic figures to exchange ideas, to network and generate effective working solutions.

May we express appreciation to you personally for consistent activity in the development of the national science and strengthening of the intellectual potential of the state.

For more than a decade the specialists of Europe Business Assembly (E.B.A., Oxford, UK) have been conducting marketing researches in various branches of economy and, first of all, in the field of science. We are interested in attracting attention of the state, society, innovation foundations and companies to the national scientific developments, their promotion to the domestic and foreign markets.

In this aspect, in our opinion, it is of great interest the offer of the International Socrates Committee of Europe Business Assembly to nominate scientists with the special prize 'The Name in Science' for the best scientific developments. The applicant becomes a holder of the honorable title 'The Name in Science'; his/her name is inscribed in the World Register of prominent scientists of the 21st century with handing a sign 'For contribution to the world science'.

Undoubtedly, the participation in this nomination will allow you to position your works in the world scientific community and facilitate further strengthening of your personal positive image. We took upon ourselves the responsibility to apply to you, a famous scientist, with the offer to nominate your candidature for the title of a laureate of the international prize in the field of scientific researches 'The Name in Science'.

The award ceremony will be held on 26th of October 2012 under the auspices of Oxford Summit of Leaders 2012 (Oxford, United Kingdom, 25th -27th October 2012). The program is attached.

The presentation of the award attributes is possible in the framework of any event, held under the auspices of Europe Business Assembly within 2012. In case of inability of your personal participation, there is an option of courier delivery of the award attributes to the indicated address.

Please inform the project's executive coordinator on your decision as a preliminary registration for the events is required.

Yours sincerely,

Europe Business Assembly

International Prize

'Best Enterprises'

for professional achievements in commercial activities

John Netting,
EBA Director General,
Oxford, UK

Speech is silver, but silence is golden

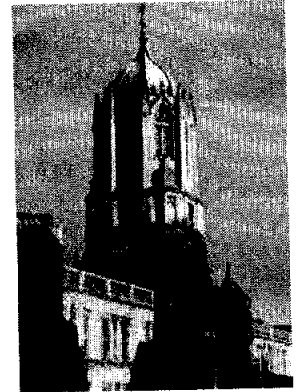

This proverb is surely right in many situations. But to share our experiences, we need a continuous dialogue between people, organizations and industries. EBA cares about that dialogue and has therefore organized different business events in the areas of education and investment.

We organize the International Socrates Award Ceremony to recognize the best professionals and give them international recognition for their success. We also facilitate continuous dialogue by networking them with other successful people. Our dedicated, accessibly and highly qualified staff are an essential part of EBA experience and will help you achieve your networking goals in variety of ways.

About EBA

Our mission is to enforce and support the exchange of experience and the development of the economy, education and culture as well as socio areas between European countries.

Therefore, EBA's main activities are to arrange national and international business forums, congresses and exhibitions. European and world personalities are awarded for their personal contributions or professional achievements.

Outlining the best experience

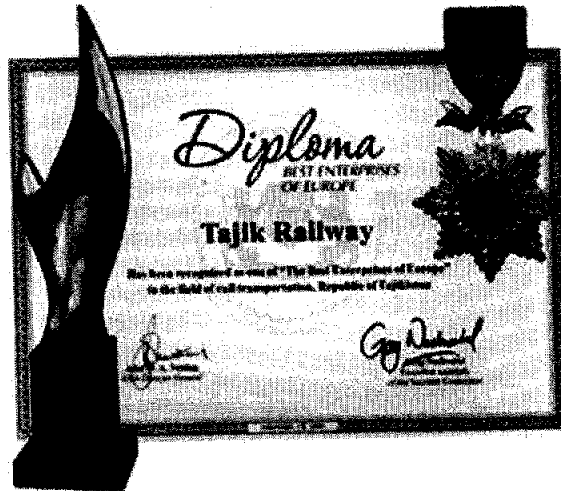

One of the most important objectives of EBA is continuously enhance and promote the reputation of commercial, educational, cultural leaders who, through their hard work and exceptional business sense, support the exchange of ideas and experiences in culture, education, economy and finance as well as socio areas.

The purpose of Socrates Awards is ongoing promotion of the world elite, who through their hard work and exceptional business sense, support an exchange of ideas and experiences amongst the international community in the areas such as economics, politics, education and culture.

Through careful selection process by the International Socrates Committee, which picks the most deserving award recipients, Socrates award ceremony honours their professional achievements and gives the international recognition for their success.

Professor Milovan Stanišić, Rector
Singidunum University

Dear Professor Stanišić,

Taking into account your successful work with the year and your personal contribution to the support of a positive image of the national education at the international level, Europe Business Assembly invites you to participate in the Christmas ceremonial reception that will be held on 17th December 2012 at the Austrian emperors' residence (Hofburg Palace, Vienna, Austria).

A peculiarity of the oncoming event is the Great Knights' Ball that will make it possible to feel in full the atmosphere of the knights' times of gallantry and nobility. Among special guests of the Ball there will be HSH Habsburg-Lothringen Salvator J., an Esterhazi dynasty representative and members of the European knights' unions.

For more than a decade the specialists of Europe Business Assembly (E.B.A., Oxford, UK) have been conducting marketing researches in various branches of economy and, first of all, in the field of science. We are interested in attracting attention of the state, society, innovation foundations and companies to the national scientific developments, their promotion to the domestic and foreign markets.

In this aspect, in our opinion, it is of great interest the offer of the International Socrates Committee of Europe Business Assembly to nominate scientists with the special prize 'The Name in Science' for the best scientific developments. The applicant becomes a holder of the honorable title 'The Name in Science'; his/her name is inscribed in the World Register of prominent scientists of the 21st century with handing a sign 'For contribution to the world science'.

Undoubtedly, the participation in this nomination will allow you to position your works in the world scientific community and facilitate further strengthening of your personal positive image. We took upon ourselves the responsibility to apply to you, a famous scientist, with the offer to nominate your candidature for the title of a laureate of the international prize in the field of scientific researches 'The Name in Science'.

Emphasizing a high status of the nomination, we invite you, as a leader, to participate in the solemn ceremony which will be held on 17th of December 2012 under the auspices of "Great Knights' ball" – Christmas ball at the Hofburg Imperial Palace (Vienna, Austria, 15-17th December 2012).

The program of the event can be seen in the attachments.

In case of inability of your personal participation, there is an option of courier delivery of the award attributes to the indicated address.

Please contact me by e-mail if your decision is favourable.

Yours sincerely,
*On behalf of John Netting, Director General

Поштована,

Овим путем Вас обавештавамо да се Европска пословна скупштина (ЕБА) до сада обратила Универзитету Привредна академија у Новом Саду електронским путем 19.маја 2011.године и 08.августа 2012.године. У прилогу Вам шаљемо копију докумената и копију садржаја оба обраћања путем електронске поште, коју је ЕБА послала Универзитету.

Желимо да напоменемо, да се Европска пословна скупштина оба пута Универзитету Привредна академија у Новом Саду обратила једино електронским путем, али да Универзитет није на било који начин остварио комуникацију са Европском пословном скупштином, па самим тим није примио никакву награду, нити је ико од запослених био на додели ЕБА награде.

Prof. Djoka Malesevic, Rector
University Business Academy in Novi Sad

Dear Prof. Malesevic,

The Nomination Committee of Europe Business Assembly (EBA, Oxford, United Kingdom) has highly appreciated your professional and social activities and recommended you to become a member of The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE).

The mission of the Club of the Rectors of Europe is to consolidate the efforts of the world scientific community in the development of provisions of the Bologna Process. The strategic objectives are uniting and coordinating the work of high schools on mastering educational-methodical, scientific-research and cultural activities.

We are especially pleased to inform you that the Nomination Committee of Europe Business Assembly has made a decision to recommend University Business Academy in Novi Sad to be awarded with the International “European Quality Award”, giving the right to place and use the award attributes on the official forms and in any advertising purposes.

This nomination witnesses the existing system of education that does not yield the best examples of organizing the educational process in high schools of Europe as well as the recognition of professionalism of the teaching staff, the quality of researches, introduction and realization of the international programs.

Please accept our sincere congratulations in connection with this high public recognition.

Emphasizing public confidence and a high status of the award we invite you for the XLVII “Socrates Award Ceremony”, which will be held on 20th of June 2011 in the framework of “Oxford Summit of Leaders” (Oxford, United Kingdom, 19th – 21st June 2011). The Program is enclosed.

We are sure that participation in that event will enhance further strengthening of your personal authority, forming a positive image of the educational institution as well as attracting an interest from the European academic community.

An accreditation form and necessary information you can receive from the projects' coordinator.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. Djoka Malesevic, Rector
University Business Academy in Novi Sad

Dear Prof. Malesevic,

Twice a year, the Oxford Summit of Leaders brings together leading business, political, economic, scientific and academic figures to exchange ideas, to network and generate effective working solutions.

May we express appreciation to you personally for consistent activity in the development of the national system of education and strengthening of the intellectual potential of the state.

Based on a reasonable evaluation of applicants as well as taking into consideration your professional and public work, the International Socrates Committee of Europe Business Assembly (E.B.A., Oxford, UK) has considered it necessary to recommend you to join the members of the Club of the Rectors of Europe (C.R.E.). The mission of the Club of the Rectors of Europe consists in consolidation of efforts of the world scientific community in the development of provisions of the Bologna Process. The strategic task of the Club is to unite and coordinate the work of educational institutions in improvement of educational-methodological, scientific-research and cultural-enlightening activities.

We are especially pleased to inform you that the Nomination Committee of Europe Business Assembly has made a decision to recommend University Business Academy in Novi Sad to be awarded with the International "European Quality Award", giving the right to place and use the award attributes on the official forms and in any advertising purposes.

This nomination witnesses the existing system of education that does not yield the best examples of organizing the educational process in high schools of Europe as well as the recognition of professionalism of the teaching staff, the quality of researches, introduction and realization of the international programs.

Please accept our sincere congratulations in connection with this high public recognition. We are sure that this membership in the Club and the "European Quality Award" will facilitate further strengthening of your personal authority, forming a positive image of your educational institution as well as attracting an interest from the European scientific community.

The award ceremony will be held on 26th of October 2012 under the auspices of Oxford Summit of Leaders 2012 (Oxford, United Kingdom, 25th -27th October 2012). The program is attached.

The presentation of the award attributes is possible in the framework of any event, held under the auspices of Europe Business Assembly within 2012. In case of inability of your personal participation, there is an option of courier delivery of the award attributes to the indicated address.

Please inform the project's executive coordinator on your decision as a preliminary registration for the events is required.

Yours sincerely,

*On behalf of John Netting, Director General
Europe Business Assembly (United Kingdom)*

*On behalf of Professor Wil Goodheer, Rector
President of the Club of Rectors of Europe*

Dear Mrs. Ljiljana Mrkic Popovic

On behalf of European Business Assembly, Director General Professor John Netting, Club of Rectors of Europe Academic Council and its President Professor Wil Goodheer let me express my deep respect and inform that 16-19 December Oxford, UK will host the Europe's largest, general science and education meeting - Summit of Leaders 'Science and Education'.

We must admit successful work of your university in professional, scientific and educational directions as well as high level of its alumni. These key factors together with stainless reputation, dynamic growth and sustainable scientific achievements let the Socrates committee nominee your University to the "Best regional University" (patent #2401351, legal, patent and other rights are EBA protected UK legislation property). The head of educational institution is presented the title 'Best Manager of the Year' in science and education sphere and personal certificate. The project is financed by accreditation fees and sponsors.

Oxford Summit of Leaders 'Science and Education' – an annual forum of investors, academics, university presidents and rectors from around the world. The main topics for discussion will be: new trends in higher education, the popularization of modern educational programmes and methods, the presentation of scientific advances and emerging innovative solutions, and the extending of international cooperation in scientific and educational spheres.

The main summit events are Conference: 'Science and Education – New trends and opportunities. Oxford Summit Meeting', Exhibition: 'Science and Education. Oxford Summit Fair', Socrates Award Ceremony for nominations in science and education and visits to Christ Church College, the Bodleian Library, and the Oxford Union – the oldest debating club

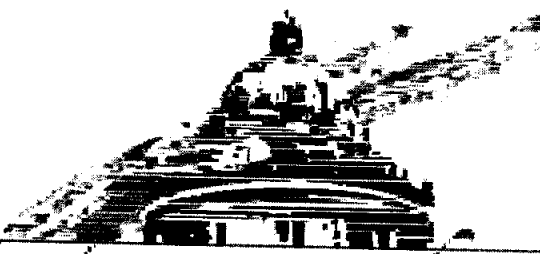

We are pleased to invite you to the Award Ceremony and Oxford Summit of Leaders 'Science and Education' (16-18 December 2013, Oxford, UK). The programme is attached.

We will be happy to see you on the prestigious award ceremony.

Yours sincerely,

EBA International Relations Manager

Rector
Mrs. Ljiljana Mrkic Popovic
University of Arts

Dear Mrs. Ljiljana Mrkic Popovic,

We would like to express our great appreciation for your consistent efforts towards developing your national science and education system. Based on a careful evaluation of applicants, the Analytical Department of the Europe Business Assembly (EBA, Oxford, UK) has invited you to join the Oxford Rectors' Club (The Club of the Rectors of Europe CRE).

The selection was based on the conformity of the academic centre to the following criteria:

- Academic development: accessibility of education, level of research activity, participation in conferences, ratio of students to professors, quality of resources and infrastructure, conformity of specialties to the requirements of the market, transparency of work, security of students, competitiveness of graduates, and number of international students and lecturers.
- Reputation: level of presence in mass media and press appraisal, number of publications in scientific journals, effectiveness of university website, references in national/international search engines, logotype/brand awareness, promptness in response and service, corporate-style support, the ratio of positive and negative reviews, and membership in international associations.

The solemn procedure of the new member's admission into THE CLUB OF THE RECTORS OF EUROPE will be held on 17 December 2013 in the framework of the Oxford Summit of Leaders: Science and Education (Oxford Town Hall, UK).

<http://www.ebaoxford.co.uk/events/2013/01/17/oxford-summit-of-leaders-science-and-education/>

Let us also inform you that Oxford Rectors' Club (The Club of the Rectors of Europe CRE) holds an international 'Science and Education' competition among the world universities. We offer you to take part in the competition in 'Best campus' category (participation is FREE).

To participate you need to:

- submit the entry no later than 15 November 2013;
- provide photos of infrastructure facilities (tennis courts, swimming pools, recreational grounds, cafés, shops and other facilities); photos of the university (principal buildings, library, main hall/audience room, etc.) and the surrounding area (campus, stadium, sports grounds, parks, green areas, etc.).

More information on <http://www.summitofleaders.co.uk/en/competition-categories-and-registration>

The announcement of winners as well as award ceremony will be held on 17 December 2013 in the framework of the Oxford Summit of Leaders: Science and Education (Oxford Town Hall, UK).

Please inform the executive coordinator of your decision, as a preliminary registration is required.

Yours sincerely,

President of The CRE
Professor
Wil Goodheer

Welcome to Oxford Club of Rectors (Club of the Rectors of Europe, CRE).

The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE) is a non-governmental public organization, which was established in Oxford, UK, in 2006. Our primary objective is to coordinate academic cooperation between higher education establishments and other educational market observers. The CRE currently consists of over a hundred members from 30 countries.

Membership of the CLUB OF THE RECTORS OF EUROPE (www.ebaoxford.co.uk) provides the following benefits:

- A Personal Diploma and a breast plate for the Club member.
- The use of the Oxford Rector's Lounge service provided at a discounted rate. This comprises the use of the Rector's personal office in Oxford, office apartments, a legal address and a personal assistant during your staying in Oxford. This service will be available from 1 June 2014.
- The opportunity to take part in the annual scientific 'Euro Education' conference at the Oxford Summit of Leaders, with the right to deliver a speech and make a presentation. You may also run your own conferences at the premises of your institution under the auspices of the CRE.
- The opportunity to deliver a public lecture to the students of Oxford University.
- The publication of scientific articles or information in the *Socrates Almanac Science and Education: Oxford Look (published under the auspices of CRE Oxford, UK.) It is an annual publication containing the most interesting scientific researches, advanced training techniques, and promising innovative solutions and financing schemes. The almanac also contains global university rankings, a list of innovative projects and programmes in education, current scientific and popular articles, biographical and journalistic essays about renowned scientists.
The Socrates Almanac is presented and distributed within the framework of the conferences held in Oxford, London, Valletta, Vienna, Moscow, Kiev, and Montreux, among other cities. This publication is also presented to the library collections of parliaments and ministries, major universities, embassies, and trade missions of Europe Business Assembly (EBA) participating countries.
- The possibility of taking part in the international scientific exchange and cooperation programmes of the CRE.
- A quota for internship training, including participation in the Oxford Education Centre training workshops, a scheme originated by the Club members and in accordance with the model of Oxford Business College.
- Participation in the online CRE Leaders Network, which aims at providing members of the Club and the wider European community with information on:
 - your university/company with an active link to your personal website;
 - trainings, workshops, exhibitions and conferences held by the members of the Club;

- opportunities for students to obtain their postgraduate education with the university members of the Club;
 - opportunities for lecturers to publish scientific works and guidelines in the scientific and methodical collections published by other members of the Club;
 - internship opportunities for international students;
 - access to summer university courses organized by members of the CRE, European universities and scientific associations;
 - access to other CRE university lecturers, who could be invited to deliver lectures in your own university.
- Assistance for CRE university members in improving the language skills of their students.
 - Participation in the annual international competition 'Excellence and Innovation in Education' for the following categories:
 1. Education : Excellence and innovation

#16/171 08 November, 2013

Rector
Mrs. Ljiljana Mrkic Popovic
University of Arts

Dear Mrs. Ljiljana Mrkic Popovic,

We would like to express our great appreciation for your consistent efforts towards developing your national science and education system. Based on a careful evaluation of applicants, the Analytical Department of the Europe Business Assembly (EBA, Oxford, UK) has invited you to join the Oxford Rectors' Club (The Club of the Rectors of Europe CRE).

The selection was based on the conformity of the academic centre to the following criteria:

- Academic development: accessibility of education, level of research activity, participation in conferences, ratio of students to professors, quality of resources and infrastructure, conformity of specialties to the requirements of the market, transparency of work, security of students, competitiveness of graduates, and number of international students and lecturers.
- Reputation: level of presence in mass media and press appraisal, number of publications in scientific journals, effectiveness of university website, references in national/international search engines, logotype/brand awareness, promptness in response and service, corporate-style support, the ratio of positive and negative reviews, and membership in international associations.

The solemn procedure of the new member's admission into THE CLUB OF THE RECTORS OF EUROPE will be held on 17 December 2013 in the framework of the Oxford Summit of Leaders: Science and Education (Oxford Town Hall, UK).

http://www.ebaoxford.co.uk/events/2013/01/17/oxford_summit_of_leaders-science_and_education/

Let us also inform you that Oxford Rectors' Club (The Club of the Rectors of Europe CRE) holds an international 'Science and Education' competition among the world universities. We offer you to take part in the competition in 'Best campus' category (participation is FREE).

To participate you need to:

- submit the entry no later than 15 November 2013;
- provide photos of infrastructure facilities (tennis courts, swimming pools, recreational grounds, cafés, shops and other facilities); photos of the university (principal buildings, library, main hall/audience room, etc.) and the surrounding area (campus, stadium, sports grounds, parks, green areas, etc.).

More information on <http://www.summitofleaders.co.uk/en/competition-categories-and-registration>

The announcement of winners as well as award ceremony will be held on 17 December 2013 in the framework of the Oxford Summit of Leaders: Science and Education (Oxford Town Hall, UK).

Please inform the executive coordinator of your decision, as a preliminary registration is required.

Yours sincerely,

President of The CRE

Welcome to Oxford Club of Rectors (Club of the Rectors of Europe, CRE).

The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE) is a non-governmental public organization, which was established in Oxford, UK, in 2006. Our primary objective is to coordinate academic cooperation between higher education establishments and other educational market observers. The CRE currently consists of over a hundred members from 30 countries.

Membership of the CLUB OF THE RECTORS OF EUROPE (www.ebaoxford.co.uk) provides the following benefits:

- A Personal Diploma and a breast plate for the Club member.
- The use of the Oxford Rector's Lounge service provided at a discounted rate. This comprises the use of the Rector's personal office in Oxford, office apartments, a legal address and a personal assistant during your staying in Oxford. This service will be available from 1 June 2014.
- The opportunity to take part in the annual scientific 'Euro Education' conference at the Oxford Summit of Leaders, with the right to deliver a speech and make a presentation. You may also run your own conferences at the premises of your institution under the auspices of the CRE.
- The opportunity to deliver a public lecture to the students of Oxford University.
- The publication of scientific articles or information in the *Socrates Almanac Science and Education: Oxford Look (published under the auspices of CRE Oxford, UK.) It is an annual publication containing the most interesting scientific researches, advanced training techniques, and promising innovative solutions and financing schemes. The almanac also contains global university rankings, a list of innovative projects and programmes in education, current scientific and popular articles, biographical and journalistic essays about renowned scientists.
The Socrates Almanac is presented and distributed within the framework of the conferences held in Oxford, London, Valletta, Vienna, Moscow, Kiev, and Montreux, among other cities. This publication is also presented to the library collections of parliaments and ministries, major universities, embassies, and trade missions of Europe Business Assembly (EBA) participating countries.
- The possibility of taking part in the international scientific exchange and cooperation programmes of the CRE.
- A quota for internship training, including participation in the Oxford Education Centre training workshops, a scheme originated by the Club members and in accordance with the model of Oxford Business College.
- Participation in the online CRE Leaders Network, which aims at providing members of the Club and the wider European community with information on:
 - your university/company with an active link to your personal website;
 - trainings, workshops, exhibitions and conferences held by the members of the Club;

- opportunities for students to obtain their postgraduate education with the university members of the Club;
 - opportunities for lecturers to publish scientific works and guidelines in the scientific and methodical collections published by other members of the Club;
 - internship opportunities for international students;
 - access to summer university courses organized by members of the CRE, European universities and scientific associations;
 - access to other CRE university lecturers, who could be invited to deliver lectures in your own university.
- Assistance for CRE university members in improving the language skills of their students.
 - Participation in the annual international competition 'Excellence and Innovation in Education' for the following categories:
 1. Education : Excellence and innovation
 2. Best lecturer
 3. Best scientist
 4. Best student
 5. Best innovative project
 6. Best educational textbook

Let us invite you to New Year's University Rector's Ball
Wednesday, 18 December, 20:00–23.00
Ceremonial City Hall, Oxford (UK)

We are delighted to inform you of one of the brightest European events - the Christmas Rector's Ball, held in

The Ball brings together rectors, innovation centres leaders, outstanding scientists and representatives of the scientific and cultural communities from more than thirty countries of Europe, Asia, Africa and the Americas.

The key mission of the ball is the recognition of scientific people, and anyone involved in the intellectual development of society, who have contributed to the introduction of spirituality as well as charity into the modern world.

The rectors of the best universities in the world lead the ball. They proceed in solemn procession to the hall in academic robes and full dress, cheered by the audience.

The event gets everyone into the mood of the past - the era of chivalry and the European cultural explosion.

Beautiful music, a classical dance program with the best European dancing waltz masters, gourmet cuisine, contests and raffles, gifts to the guests of the ball and concert performances all contribute to the atmosphere of the event.

The Ball organisers do their best to ensure that every participant enjoys the event to the fullest of their ability and has the happiest possible memories.

More detailed information on <http://www.summitofleaders.co.uk/en/activities#Ball>

Ticket/table reservation - £250 per person. Free for participants of the Oxford Summit of Leaders: Science and Education. The Ball participants can also attend the plenary and some of the work Summit session.

If you have some questions concerning the participation, do not hesitate to contact me.

Your sincerely,

PREDMET: Dopuna odgovora na zahtjev

Poštovani,

U vezi sa Vašim zahtjevom od 15. 01. 2014. g. i odgovorom na zahtjev br. 50/14 od 17. 01. 2014. g. dostavljamo Vam i dopunu odgovora gdje Vam prosleđujemo sve informacije i dokumenta vezane za Vaše traženje.

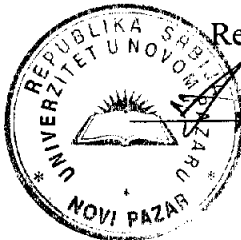

Hronološki naša komunikacija sa Evropskom poslovnom skupštinom (EBA) tekla je sljedećim redosledom:

- 08. 08. 2012. g. na mail adrese rektor@uninp.edu.rs i admin@uninp.edu.rs stigao je prvi mail u kojem nam se gore pomenuta organizacija obraća. (prilog 1.),
- 09. 08. 2012. g. sa mail adrese rektorat@uninp.edu.rs obavjestili smo ih da smo zaprimili mail i tražili dodatne informacije. (prilog 2.),
- 10. 08. 2012. g. EBA nam dostavlja detaljnije informacije putem maila (prilog 3.),
- 10. 08. 2012. g., traže potvrdu prijema poslatih mail-ova (prilog 4.),
- 13. 08. 2012. g. putem mail adrese EBA nas kontaktira i zahvaljuje na potvrdi primljenih informacija (prilog 5.),
- 05. 10. 2012. g. EBA nas putem maila kontaktira ponovo i podsjećaju da ističu rokovi za prijavljivanje (prilog 6.),
- Nakon toga, u periodu posle 5. 10. 2012., telefonskim putem nas kontaktiraju jer im nismo davali nikakve dalje odgovore. Sekretar u Rektoratu, Adnan Hasanović, im je tom prilikom odgovorio da nismo zainteresovani za njihovu ponudu i da je budžet Univerziteta isplaniran za tu godinu, te da nismo predvideli sredstva za takav vid promocije.

- EBA nas je kontaktirala putem elektronske pošte 4. septembra 2013. godine, na koju nismo odgovarali (prilog 7.).

Nakon navedenog datuma EBA nam se nije više obraćala i nikada nismo primili nagrade koje dodjeljuju jer smo, kako je gore navedeno, odbili saradnju.

S poštovanjem,

Rektorat

Mr. Adnan Hasanovic

Rector's Office

International University of Novi Pazar, Republic of Serbia

Dear Mr. Hasanovic, I would like to express my appreciations related to the interest from Prof. dr Mevlud Dudić's side and your kind attention.

Permit me also inform you, that we have been trying to contact with Prof. dr Dudić during this year for several times but unfortunately unsuccessfully. This time we forwarded the invitation letter by post and via e-mail. We are glad that you finally received it.

I would like to inform you in advance, that the presence of the President of the Club of the Rectors of Europe Professor Wil Goodheer is scheduled in the framework of the Oxford Summit of Leaders and Solemn Award Ceremony.

So we do hope for the interest of yours concerning the attendance of our event.

The main participants in the Summits and Socrates Award Ceremony arrange by EBA (Europe Business Assembly) are individuals, who through their work have served as positive models for the society at large and have brought innovation in science, business, education and governance and have continuously displayed great professional and ethical standards, who have achieved great results in the social, medical, educational and business policy, the leading companies and Higher Educational Establishments of The Eastern countries, Southern Europe, Asia and CIS.

The list of participants are forming now and according to the corporate ethics, the name of other persons and companies, going to participate in the Summit and the ceremony are not made public. But the list of laureates, who have already taken part in Events is on the official site of EBA (<http://www.ebaoxford.co.uk>).

- During this year the Marketing Department of European Business Assembly has been researching professional activities of the International University of Novi Pazar, using open sources of information taking into account the system of education, use of the international educational and research programmes and other aspects.

On the basis of this research the International University of Novi Pazar occupies one of the leading positions in the field, follows the demands of the students and pays attention to the reputation. It proves as well the professionalism of the teaching staff, high quality of research work, international programmes introduction and realization.

Prof.dr Mevlud Dudić has achieved great results in the educational and research field being the Rector of such University.

The nomination for honourable title 'The Name in Science' — for the best scientific developments and researches was implemented on the bases of analytic statistics of Europe Business Assembly analytic department, taking into account international image programme "XXI Century Leaders" partners recommendations:

- Frieburg University (Switzerland),
- Rating Research Institute,
- Association of Consultants-Marketers (Czech Republic),
- Marketing Counselors Association,
- European Center of Market Research (Belgium),
- International Congress of Industrials & Entrepreneurs, ,
- Export Academy Baden-Byurtemberg (Germany)and others.

In attached files you are able to find detailed information according to Summit and solemn award ceremony, estimate of expenditures related to event and the registration form, which includes conditions and your offers as for participation in the event.

This registration form I'll kindly ask you fill out and send to me in case of your positive decision to attend the event or for receiving the award attributes directly to Republic of Serbia by couries service.

I would like to inform you, that if you need the Official Invitation Letter from Europe Business Assembly, I'll kindly ask you to forward the scanned passports of all participants, who is going to attend the Event and this way we'll be able to provide you with forementioned Invitation Letter.

Permit me explain you once again that Solemn Award Ceremony is arranged during all proposed events. The upcoming event with Solemn Award Ceremony is going to be held on 25-27 October, 2012 in Oxford, United Kingdom in the framework of the Oxford Summit of Leaders. If this event is not acceptable for you, we'll be glad to see you among the laureates and participants of the event called

"Great Knights' ball" – Christmas ball at the Hofburg Imperial Palace in December 2012, Vienna, Austria (the draft of the programs of the events in 2012 is on the EBA's website: <http://www.ebaoxford.co.uk>).

Dear Mr. Hasanovic, permit me also forward the link of the photo gallery of the Events, held by EBA for your and Prof.dr Mevlud Dudić's kind reference: <http://gallery.leaders-21.com/> (the last event was arranged in July 2012 in Dublin, Ireland, where the Lord-Mayor of Dublin Mr.Andrew Montague took part and was awarded with the EBA's award as well as mayors of the following cities:

- 1). City of Belgrade, Republic of Serbia – Mayor of Belgrade Dragan Djilas
- 2). Ehlanzeni District Municipality, South Africa – Executive Mayor Letta Ntombi Shongwe
- 3). Municipality of Gostivar, Republic of Macedonia – Mayor Rufe Osmani
- 4). Hibiscus Coast Municipality, South Africa – Mayor Nomusa Cynthia Princess Mqwebu
- 5). Konya Metropolitan Municipality, Turkey – Mayor Dr. Akyurek Tahir
- 6). Nablus Municipality, Palestine – Mayor Adil Yaish
- 7). Ruse Municipality, Bulgaria – Mayor Plamen Stoilov
- 8). City Office of Rzeszow, Poland – Mayor Tadeusz Ferenc

Hope, it will be also useful for you.

If any questions emerge related to Solemn Ceremony and the Summit, I'll answer them with a great pleasure.

Thank you in advance for your kind attention and time!

Prof.dr Mevlud Dudić, Rector
International University of Novi Pazar

Dear Prof.dr Dudić,

Thank you for ever so much for your interest to the Oxford Summit of Leaders (Oxford, United Kingdom, 26 October 2012).

For more than 12 years this solemn ceremony has been taking place in European capitals at the most prestigious venues: in London – at Wellington Palace, in Moscow – at the Cathedral of Christ the Savior, in Barcelona – at the Parliament of Catalonia, in Vienna – at Palais Pallavicini and Hofburg Imperial Palace.

Every year the Socrates Nomination Committee with its headquarters in Oxford defines outstanding individuals from various countries and encourages them for their merits with prestigious European awards.

Each award is registered at the British Patent Office and is an intellectual property of Europe Business Assembly.

The list of last years participants can be seen on our Internet resource <http://www.ebaoxford.co.uk/2/q-a.html> , please, view the laureates in the Hall of Recipients in alphabetical order.

The list of this year participants is not made public till the event according to corporate ethics. Among the laureates, who are going to attend the even in Oxford are heads and representatives of large business enterprises, persons with achievements in social, educational policy and representatives of leading public foundations from Europe, Asia and Africa.

For more than ten years specialists of the Assembly have been conducting marketing researches in the field of fundamental sciences and education to attract innovative foundations and companies for the national scientific developments, to enhance them at home and foreign markets. We took upon ourselves the responsibility to address to you, a well-known scientist, with the offer to nominate your candidature for the laureate of honourable title in the field of scientific researches 'The Name in Science'. Participation in this nomination will allow you to position your works in the world academia and facilitate further strengthening of your personal positive image.

The basic criteria of the laureates' selection are the actuality of the scientific developments, their economic efficiency, loyalty to the integration transfer, participation in the international symposia and conferences. It also takes into consideration the unique achievements in the professional work, the personal contribution of the nominee to the development of the national science, enlightening activities and support of the social projects, the press evaluation, frequency of citation and absence of negative comments in mass media.

The nomination for exclusive honorable title 'The Name in Science' (The applicant becomes a holder of the honorable title 'The Name in Science'; his name is inscribed in the World Register of prominent scientists of the 21st century with handing a sign 'For contribution to the world science') was implemented on the bases of analytic statistics of Europe Business Assembly analytic department, taking into account international image programme "XXI Century Leaders" partners recommendations: Frieberg University (Switzerland), Rating Research Institute, European Center of Market Research (Belgium), Marketing Counselors Association, International Congress of Industrials & Entrepreneurs, Association of Consultants -Marketers (Czech Republic), Export Academy Baden-Byurtemberg (Germany) and others.

PREDMET: Odgovor na zahtev za pristup
informacijama od javnog značaja

Dana 15.01.2014. godine primili smo Vaš zahtev za pristup informacijama od javnog značaja u kome tražite da Vam dostavimo sledeće informacije i dokumenta:

1. Da li se Evropska poslovna skupština, EBA (European Business Assembly, EBA organizacija sa sedištem u Oksfordu, njihova zvanična internet stranica je <http://www.ebaoxford.co.uk/>) ikada obraćala Vašem Univerzitetu?
2. Ukoliko jeste, navedite nam sledeće podatke:
 - a) sve datume kada se EBA obratila Univerzitetu,
 - b) kopiju svih dokumenata i kopiju sadržaja svih obraćanja putem elektronske i druge pošte koju je EBA slala Univerzitetu,
 - v) da li je Univerzitet bio nominovan za dobijanje neke od nagrada koje EBA dodeljuje, koje su to nagrade bile i koliko su iznosili predviđeni troškovi kako bi Univerzitet primio nagradu/nagrade (učesće, akreditacija i sl.)?
 - g) dostavite nam kopije svih dokumentata, pisama i prepiske koju je EBA slala Univerzitetu i koje je Univerzitet slao Evropskoj poslovnoj skupštini (EBA)
3. Da li je Univerzitet ikada primio neku nagradu koju EBA dodeljuje? Ukoliko jeste, navedite podatke za svaku pojedinačnu nagradu:
 - a) kada i gde se održavala dodela nagrada?
 - b) koje sve nagrade je Univerzitet dobio?
 - v) koliki su bili troškovi (iznos i opis troškova) za dobijanje te nagrade (putovanje, smeštaj, akreditacija i sve ostalo što je spadalo pod te troškove)

g) navedite ko sve od zaposlenih je bio na dodeli EBA nagrade

d) dostavite kopiju svih dokumenata i obraćanja koje je EBA slala Univerzitetu i svih dokumenata i pisama koje je Univerzitet slao EBA-i

4. Ukoliko se EBA obraćala Univerzitetu sa obaveštenjem da je Univerzitet nominovan za nagradu, a Univerzitet nije primio to priznanje, navedite razloge zbog kojih je Vaš Univerzitet odbio da primi tu nagradu.

Odgovori i informacije:

1. European Business Assembly sa sedištem u Oxfordu se do sada više puta obraćala ovom univerzitetu. Podatke o obraćanju i dokumentaciju dostavljamo u okviru odgovora na ostala Vaša pitanja, odnosno kao prilog uz ovaj dopis.

a) Reč je o sledećim datumima:

- (1) 18. januar 2010.
- (2) 01. februar 2010.
- (3) 02. februar 2010.
- (4) 10. septembar 2010.
- (5) 27. april 2011.
- (6) 28. oktobar 2011.
- (7) 31. oktobar 2011.
- (8) 01. juni 2012.
- (9) 06. avgust 2012.
- (10) 08. avgust 2012.
- (11) 01. oktobar 2012.
- (12) 18. oktobar 2012.
- (13) 25. oktobar 2012.
- (14) 04. septembar 2013.

b) U prilogu dopisa dostavljamo kopiju svih dokumenata i kopiju sadržaja svih obraćanja putem elektronske i druge pošte koju je EBA slala Univerzitetu.

v) Prema dopisu EBA od 18.01.2010. godine ovaj univerzitet je bio nominovan za nagradu „European Quality Award“. Kada je reč o troškovima, dostavljen nam je dopis od 01. februara 2010. i prijava za učešće iz kojih se vidi da ti troškovi mogu biti različiti, zavisno od broja lica koja prisustvuju svečanosti i eventualnih dodatnih zahteva. Koliko mi vidimo, iznosi navedeni u prijavi i dopisu se ne slažu u potpunosti, a nismo ni sigurni šta je sve obavezno platiti, a šta nije. Iz priložene dokumentacije možete videti ove iznose, a nama se čini da je minimalni iznos koji bi trebalo uplatiti za učešće negde oko 7-8.000 £. U ovaj iznos nisu uračunati troškovi prevoza i smeštaja. Nismo se raspitivali koliko bi nas koštao put i smeštaj.

g) U prilogu dopisa dostavljamo kopiju svih dokumenata i kopiju sadržaja svih obraćanja putem elektronske i druge pošte koju je EBA slala Univerzitetu i koje je Univerzitet slao EBA.

3. Ovaj univerzitet nikada nije primio ni jednu od nagrada koje dodeljuje EBA.

- a) ----
- b) ----
- v) ----
- g) ----

d) U prilogu dopisa dostavljamo kopiju svih dokumenata i kopiju sadržaja svih obraćanja putem elektronske i druge pošte koju je EBA slala Univerzitetu i koje je Univerzitet slao EBA.

4. Posle prijema dopisa od EBA koji nosi datum od 18.01.2010. godine Univerzitet je odgovorio da je počastvovan nominacijom i tražio dodatna objašnjenja o toj nagradi. Do prijema odgovora smo pogledali sajt EBA, a nešto kompletniju sliku smo stekli posle prijema detaljnog objašnjenja od EBA, sa obrascem prijave i ukazivanjem na troškove. Nakon ovoga prekinuli smo komunikaciju sa EBA tako što više nismo odgovarali na mejlove. Dodela nagrade nam nije izgledala ubedljivo, kao ni pristupanje Evropskom klubu rektora. Iz podataka sa sajta EBA vidi se da ova organizacija nije u sastavu Univerziteta Oxford, već da samo ima sedište u Oxfordu. Nismo uspeli da pronađemo bilo kakvu vezu između ove organizacije i univerziteta ili fakulteta koje ona nagrađuje. Takođe nismo uspeli ni da pronađemo kriterijume po kojima EBA dodeljuje nagrade. Od lica koja se pominju u toj organizaciji početkom 2010. godine (kada smo pregledavali sajt EBA) nalazio se samo jedan profesor sa Univerziteta Oxford. Nije nam izgledao uverljivo da organizacija koja u svom sastavu ima samo jednog univerzitetskog profesora može kompetentno da ceni rad bilo kog univerziteta. Nije nam pomenut ni jedan razlog iz koga bi se videlo čime smo zaslužili nagradu. Smatramo i da nije uobičajeno da onaj ko nagrađuje traži naknadu bilo kakvih troškova. Stekli smo utisak da bi nagradu trebalo da „kupimo“. Zbog ovakvih utisaka prekinuli smo komunikaciju o pomenutoj nagradi. Na mejlove koje smo primali kasnije nismo odgovarali.

Prof. Zlatko Stefanovic, Rector
"Union" University

Dear Prof. Stefanovic,

The Nomination Committee of Europe Business Assembly (EBA, Oxford, United Kingdom) has highly appreciated your professional and social activities and recommended you to become a member of The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE).

The mission of the Club of the Rectors of Europe is to consolidate the efforts of the world scientific community in the development of provisions of the Bologna Process. The strategic objectives are uniting and coordinating the work of high schools on mastering educational-methodical, scientific-research and cultural activities.

We are especially pleased to inform you that the Nomination Committee of Europe Business Assembly has made a decision to recommend Union University to be awarded with the International "European Quality Award", giving the right to place and use the award attributes on the official forms and in any advertising purposes.

This nomination witnesses the existing system of education that does not yield the best examples of organizing the educational process in high schools of Europe as well as the recognition of professionalism of the teaching staff, the quality of researches, introduction and realization of the international programmes.

Emphasizing public confidence and a high status of the award we invite you for the XLVI "Socrates Award Ceremony", which will be held on 15th of March 2010 in the framework of "Oxford Summit of Leaders" (Oxford Town Hall, United Kingdom, 14th - 17th March 2010). The Programme is attached.

We are sure that participation in that event will enhance further strengthening of your personal authority, forming a positive image of the educational institution as well as attracting an interest from the European academic community.

An accreditation form and necessary information you can receive from the project's coordinator:
Yours sincerely,

On behalf of John Netting, Director General
Europe Business Assembly (United Kingdom)

On behalf of Professor Wil Goodheer, Rector
The International University, Vienna,

Dear Prof.Zlatko Stefanovic,I would like to express my appreciations related to the interest from your side and kind attention.

The main participants in the ceremony and Summit are individuals, who through their work have served as positive models for the society at large and have brought innovation in science, education and governance and have continuously displayed great professional and ethical standards, who have achieved great results in the social, educational and business policy and the leading companies and Higher Educational Establishments of The Eastern countries, Southern Europe, Asia and CIS. The list of participants are forming now and according to the corporate ethics, the name of other persons and companies, going to participate in the Summit and the ceremony are not made public. But the list of laureates, who have already taken part in Event is on the official site of EBA (<http://www.ebaoford.co.uk>).

During last year Marketing Department of European Business Assembly has been researching professional activities of "Union" University, using open sources of information taking into account the system of education, use of the international educational programmes and other aspects.

On the basis of this research "Union" University occupies one of the leading positions in the field, follows the demands of the students and pays attention to the reputation. It proves as well the professionalism of the teaching staff, high quality of research work, international programmes introduction and realization.

The nomination for "Euro Quality" (This prestigious award is given to companies, higher educational establishments, products and services of which satisfy the highest qualitative characteristics and competitiveness) implemented on the bases of analytic statistics of Europe Business Assembly analytic department, taking into account international image programme "XXI Century Leaders" partners recommendations: International Congress of Industrials & Entrepreneurs, European Center of Market Research (Belgium), Export Academy Baden-Byurtemberg (Germany), Association of Consultants -Marketers (Czech Republic), International Educational Center, Vienna University (Austria), Frieberg University (Switzerland), Rating Research Institute, Marketing Counselors Association and others.

In attached files you are able to find detailed information according to the solemn award ceremony, deatiled information about the membership in the Club of the Rectors of Europe, estimate of expenditures related to event and registration form, which includes conditions and your offers as for participation in the event.

Dear Prof.Stefanovic, I would like to forward the link of the photo gallery of the Event, held by EBA for your kind reference:

Information reference

The International club of Rectors (CRE) as a non-governmental public organization is registered in Oxford (Great Britain) in 2005.

Initiators – rectors of universities of European countries – see a mission of a new international structure to consolidate efforts of the world scientific community for development of Bologna Process provisions.

The strategic tasks of the Club are affiliation and coordination of activity of high schools on perfecting educational-methodical, scientific, research, cultural and educational activity.

The founders of the Club are rectors and other figures in the sphere of high education in Europe, Asia, Africa and Latin America.

Realization of the Club mission anticipates participation of its members in the following international projects:

- founding of International Centre of educational programmes in Oxford (Great Britain), and organization on its basis of educational and training programmes for high schools-founders' students;
- creation of consulting informational-research centre CRE on the questions of education for students and exchange of high school specialists, scientific and educational programmes and granting of know-how;
- holding of annual scientific-practical conferences “Euro Education” on the basis of leading high schools of Europe;
- publication of an annual information-advertising catalogue and CD “Universities of the World”;
- opening of the general web-site of the Club with the reference to the sites of the high schools – members of the Club;
- representation of interests of the Club members at the prestigious international exhibitions, forums, symposiums and conferences devoted to higher education;
- recommendation of rectors and teachers of the universities for decoration with honorary awards of CRE.

Sincerely,

CRE President, Rector
Vienna International University (Austria),
Professor Wil Goodheer

February 1, 2010

Professor Zlatko Stefanovic, Rector
"Union" University

Dear Prof. Stefanovic,

Thank you for ever so much for your interest to the inauguration of prestigious “European Award ceremony” which will be held on 15 March 2010 in the framework of “Oxford Summit of Leaders” (Oxford Town Hall, United Kingdom, 14th - 17^h March 2010).

The list of last years participants can be seen on our Internet resource <http://www.ebaoford.co.uk/2/q-a.html> , please, view the laureates in the Hall of Recipients in alphabetical order.

The list of this year participants is not made public till the event according to corporate ethics. Among the laureates, who are going to attend the even in Oxford are heads and representatives of large business enterprises, persons with achievements in social, educational policy and representatives of leading public foundations from Europe, Asia and Africa.

The decision of the Academic Council is fulfilled on the basis of an application of the Nomination Committee of Europe Business Assembly as well as on the initiative (or with the support) of the government, independent institutions and enterprises, public organizations, outstanding scientists and specialists, and symbolizes the highest degree of international recognition of achievements in professional activities, being the head of an educational establishment, which system of education is proven not to yield the examples of the learning process organization in the educational establishments of Europe. It proves as well the professionalism of the teaching staff, high quality of research work, international programmes introduction and realization.

The organizational estimate of expenditures for the laureate connected with the award ceremony for being the member of “The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE)” in Oxford is an equivalent of 1920 pounds sterling. This amount includes: the laureate’s participation in the awarding ceremony with receiving an individual complete set of awarding attributes of the “The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE)”; catalogue; placing the information about the laureate on the official Internet-resource of Europe Business Assembly; your participation in all activities, listed in the programme and protocol services; receiving the information materials of a participant

The organizational estimate of expenditures for the laureate connected with the award ceremony for the “European Quality Award” in Oxford is an equivalent of 4220 pounds sterling. This amount includes: the laureate’s participation in the awarding ceremony with receiving an individual complete set of awarding attributes of the “European Quality Award” (a statuette, an individual diploma and symbolism on the electronic medium); placing the information about the laureate on the official Internet-resource of Europe Business Assembly; your participation in all activities, listed in the programme and protocol services; receiving the information materials of a participant.

EUROPE BUSINESS ASSEMBLY

2 Empress Court, Woodins Way, Paradise Street, Oxford, OX11HF • tel: +44 (0) 1865 251 122 • fax: +44(0)1865 251 113

Registered in England 03964500 • VAT number 864 7492 79

Working language is English. The organizational estimate of expenditures connected with the participation of each accompanying person is 420 pounds sterling. As for the laureates only, the sum of 420 pounds sterling is already included into the accreditation fee.

Payment is made on the basis of Invoice but the variant of payment on the spot in cash is also possible. Currency of payment: English pounds sterling, Euros, US dollars.

As for lodging, please view the RegForm (in attachment). In view of your positive decision to take part in this ceremony we ask you to send by e-mail the filled Registration Form, a brief information about your university which you want to be placed in the catalogue and university's logotype.

Please, for opening visa, flight to and from London, hotel booking and transfer to/from hotel we offer you to apply to the tourist agencies of your country. We are able to provide you with an Invitation Letter from Europe Business Assembly's side.

Having no possibility to receive the award personally (or by a representative) there is a possibility of the award being delivered to Republic of Serbia by a special courier. In this case the organizational estimate of expenditures for the laureate connected with absentee participation in the award ceremony for the membership in "The Club of the Rectors of Europe (CRE)" and nomination for "European Quality Award" is an equivalent of 5300 pounds sterling. It includes: Order and manufacturing of individual set of awarding attributes; all transport expenditures, connected with awards delivery with a special courier from United Kingdom to Republic of Serbia; assignation of permanent right to use awarding attributes for advertisement and other purposes; minutes services and placing laureate's data on the internet-resource of Europe Business Assembly.

We would highly appreciate any decision of yours.

Oxford Summit of Leaders

10-13 December 2011, Oxford, UK

Oxford summit is an impressive international event in the south-east of the UK, an exclusive interactive platform for business contacts, presentations, exchange of ideas and technologies.

It is held in the centre of the world's scientific community in Oxford since 2000. More than 6,000 of top managers from 56 countries participated in the summits for 11 years.

The representatives of the national elites were traditionally greeted by the lord-mayors of Oxford - Brian Kin, Bob Price, Jim Campbell, Elise Benjamin, members of the European Parliament - Barbara Kudrycka and Derek Clark, distinguished politicians, diplomats and members of governments.

The forum's format is B2B, number of delegates - 200.

Members of parliaments, city-managers, and heads of business structures from 30 countries are accredited to December summit of 2011.

Summit opening will be held in the historic centre of Oxford - Town Hall. The organizers are also planning to hold working meetings of professional groups with European experts, a rectors' rout, opening of presentations of investment projects, programmes of international cooperation.

As always a bright event is the traditional 'Socrates Award Ceremony'. Co-chairmen of the Nomination Committee John Netting and Wil Goodheer will present international Socrates prizes of 2011 to the representatives of political, economic and scientific establishment of the countries of Eastern Europe, Asia and Africa in the field of state management, economy and culture.

Prof. Radomir Bojkovic, Chairman of the University Board
"Union" University

Dear Prof. Bojkovic,

Annually in December the international Socrates committee of Europe Business Assembly (E.B.A., Oxford, UK) presents prestigious European awards to leading representatives of business, scientific and creative community.

Specialists of the international contact-center of the assembly are commissioned to appraise expertly the competitiveness of candidates on the territory of Republic of Serbia. The successful work of your University in the field of products and services for a wide range of students, the University's policy in the field of quality and your high personal authority have given the Nomination Committee of Europe Business Assembly (EBA, Oxford, United Kingdom) an opportunity to nominate "Union" University for the International award "European Quality" — for high quality of the services in accordance with European standards, and you personally for "United Europe"— for your personal contribution to the development of integration processes as well as fruitful and efficient leadership

The award of the international Socrates committee "European Quality" and "United Europe" have a state register number in the British patent office. They are made of noble metals in the art studio of famous London jeweler Alfred Winiecki. Not more than a hundred enterprises of known brands and companies of the 'middle' category are nominated annually.

The award ceremony will be held on 12th of December 2011 in the framework of 'Christmas reception' under the auspices of Oxford Summit of Leaders (Oxford, United Kingdom, 10th -13th December 2011). The programme is attached.

We are firmly convinced that presenting of this award will facilitate further promotion of the products and services of the University headed by you, strengthen a positive image and students' trust.

Please inform the expert-analyst of the project on your decision by any convenient form of yours.

Yours sincerely,
*On behalf of John Netting, Director General
Europe Business Assembly (United Kingdom)*

Dear Prof. Stefanovic,

From the 11th till 15th of July 2012 a large European scientific conference 'Euroscience Open Forum' (ESOF-2012) will be held in Dublin (Ireland) that is hosted every two years in one of leading European cities. The forum is an interdisciplinary all-European platform where up-to-date achievements in the field of science and technology are being demonstrated, a dialogue on the role of science and technologies in the state policy and the life of society is being carried on.

At the same time with the main programme of the forum, there will be the celebration of the laureates of an honourable title 'The Name in Science' — for the best scientific developments and researches. The celebration will be held on the 12th of July 2012 at the Dublin Town Hall. The laureate becomes a holder of an honourable title 'The Name in Science' with handing a breast sign; his/her name is inscribed to the register of outstanding scientists according to the version of Europe Business Assembly (E.B.A., Oxford, UK).

For more than ten years specialists of the Assembly have been conducting marketing researches in the field of fundamental sciences and education to attract innovative foundations and companies for the national scientific developments, to enhance them at home and foreign markets. We took upon ourselves the responsibility to address to you, a well-known scientist, with the offer to nominate your candidature for the laureate of honourable title in the field of scientific researches 'The Name in Science'. Participation in this nomination will allow you to position your works in the world academia and facilitate further strengthening of your personal positive image.

The basic criteria of the laureates' selection are the actuality of the scientific developments, their economic efficiency, loyalty to the integration transfer, participation in the international symposia and conferences. It also takes into consideration the unique achievements in the professional work, the personal contribution of the nominee to the development of the national science, enlightening activities and support of the social projects, the press evaluation, frequency of citation and absence of negative comments in mass media.

In case of impossibility of your personal participation, there is an option of a special courier delivery of the set of the nomination attributes to the indicated address or presenting the award in the framework of any next events, held under the auspices of E.B.A. within 2012.

Please inform the project's executive coordinator on your decision as a preliminary registration is required.

Dear Prof. Stefanovic,

Twice a year, the Oxford Summit of Leaders brings together leading business, political, economic, scientific and academic figures to exchange ideas, to network and generate effective working solutions.

May we express appreciation to you personally for consistent activity in the development of the national science and strengthening of the intellectual potential of the state.

For more than a decade the specialists of Europe Business Assembly (E.B.A., Oxford, UK) have been conducting marketing researches in various branches of economy and, first of all, in the field of science. We are interested in attracting attention of the state, society, innovation foundations and companies to the national scientific developments, their promotion to the domestic and foreign markets.

In this aspect, in our opinion, it is of great interest the offer of the International Socrates Committee of Europe Business Assembly to nominate scientists with the special prize 'The Name in Science' for the best scientific developments. The applicant becomes a holder of the honorable title 'The Name in Science'; his/her name is inscribed in the World Register of prominent scientists of the 21st century with handing a sign 'For contribution to the world science'.

Undoubtedly, the participation in this nomination will allow you to position your works in the world scientific community and facilitate further strengthening of your personal positive image. We took upon ourselves the responsibility to apply to you, a famous scientist, with the offer to nominate your candidature for the title of a laureate of the international prize in the field of scientific researches 'The Name in Science'.

The award ceremony will be held on 26th of October 2012 under the auspices of Oxford Summit of Leaders 2012 (Oxford, United Kingdom, 25th -27th October 2012). The program is attached.

The presentation of the award attributes is possible in the framework of any event, held under the auspices of Europe Business Assembly within 2012. In case of inability of your personal participation, there is an option of courier delivery of the award attributes to the indicated address.
