Editorial OFICE and the Trade Leaders' Club grant since more than 25 years different trophies to enterprises from all over the world, deserving them because of their quality, services and brand name. An important work meeting as well as a confratermity's lunch are the framework where the different acts take place in the presence of the authorities of the country, Diplomatic Corps and mass media.

The awards that the selected firms receive represent an international guarantee for their promotion in any market or country.
